Educational Department

Read Correspondence ending with letter from the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore District D.No 606 dated 26th November 1890
Order No 224-290 dated 30th March 1891

The Municipality of Hoskote has provided Rs 10 per mensem for the next official year as its contribution towards the Cost of an English School A Separate English school has generally proved unsatisfactory It is therefore resolved to provide English teaching in Connection with the Taluq Kannada school The First and the Second English Standards will be Combined with the Third and the Fourth Vernacular Standards of the Taluq School and only those boys will be allowed to Commence the Study of English who have been promoted from the Second Vernacular Class which is of the

Upper Primary Standard English will be taught from two to three hours every day to such boys of the III and IV classes of the Taluq School as desire to study English and are prepared to pay 8 annas a month as School fee These boys will for the rest of the day learn their Vernacular as a language and the Subjects of (1) Arithmetic (2) Geography and History and (3) Hygeine or Agriculture up to the standard of the Local Examination for pupils in their own Vernacular Boys Wishing to learn English will bee excused the Taluq School fee of one anna and Outsiders and exstudents must repass the III or the IV class of the Taluq School before they can be admitted to the English classes unless they have already passed the Local Examination for pupils The English master will collect the fees for English teaching and pay them into the ~~Treasury~~ to the Credit of the Municipal as at present in the Case of the Separate

Separate Municipal Schools Three-fourths of the Cost of English teaching will be borne by the Municipality and one fourth by the Government

In accordance with these Views an English master on Rs 15 or 20 a month according to merit may be employed for I and II anglo Vernacular Standards from the 1st April 1891 the Services of one or more additional teachers being engaged for the III & IV anglo Vernacular Standards as the necessity arises The Cost of additional furniture, maps, reference books and of building and repairs, when a Separate building is occupied, will be shared equally between the Government and the Municipality
